Firstly find a school and you will be given all the details on that school including all the inspection reports published for that school. Contestability, in which colleges will be increasingly required to compete for funding with private training organisations, the Train to Gain initiative, in which training is geared towards employers, and the rapidly developing 14 to 19 agenda are all pushing colleges to collaborate to survive. It was last inspected nearly four years ago, when its leadership and management was rated good, as were eight of its 10 curriculum areas.
