An additional benefit is that they are a great rubric for evaluating the way coaches are communicating with you. Mike Curran has coached high school baseball for more than three decades and currently serves as the head coach at Esperanza High School in Anaheim, California. A graduate of UCLA, Andy is a member of the American Baseball Coaches Association and Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Coaching Baseball Successfully by Andy Lopez

One of the top high school coaches in the country provides firsthand experience, insight into the game, coaching strategies, and techniques that any coach can implement into a program. His career record of more than 500 victories makes Curran one of the most recognizable and highly regarded coaches not only in the state of California but in all of the United States. Want more information on communicating with college coaches? The baseball world is small and you never know if that coach will be at your dream school by the time you graduate.
