Walker's appeal in four articles : together with a preamble, to the coloured citizens of the world, but in particular, and very expressly to those of the United States of America : Walker, David, 1785

But against all accusations which may or can be preferred against me, I appeal to Heaven for my motive in writing--who knows that my object is, if possible, to awaken in the breasts of my afflicted, degraded and slumbering brethren, a spirit of inquiry and investigation respecting our miseries and wretchedness in this Republican Land of Liberty! Will any of us leave our homes and go to Africa? And yet they are calling for Peace! Millions of whom, are this day, so ignorant and avaricious, that they cannot conceive how God can have an attribute of justice, and show mercy to us because it pleased Him to make us black--which colour, Mr. Fear not the number and education of our enemies, against whom we shall have to contend for our lawful right; guaranteed to us by our Maker; for why should we be afraid, when God is, and will continue, if we continue humble to be on our side? But the Lord sees their actions. If there are any changes, will they not be for the better, though they may appear for the worst at first? Have not the Americans the Bible in their hands? Can we not go where we want to, as well as other people, only if we obey the voice of the Holy Ghost? We may attribute these vicissitudes to what we please, but the God of armies and of justice rules in heaven and in earth, and the whole American people shall see and know it yet, to their satisfaction.

and Very Expressly, to Those of the United States of America, Written in Boston, State of Massachusetts, September 28, 1829

To show the judgments of God upon the Spaniards, I shall occupy but a little time, leaving a plenty of room for the candid and unprejudiced to reflect. But as I am compelled to do the will of my Master, I declare, I will give you my sentiments upon it. Will he let the oppressors rest comfortably and happy always? What the American preachers can think of us, I aver this day before my God, I have never been able to define.

For I cannot conceive of any thing else.

I have known tyrants or usurpers of human liberty in different parts of this country to take their fellow creatures, the coloured people, and beat them until they would scarcely leave life in them; what for?. The last clause of this speech, which was written in a very artful manner, and which will be taken for the speech of a friend, without close examination and deep penetration, I shall now present.

To what length will not man go in iniquity when given up to a hard heart, and reprobate mind, in consequence of blood and oppression? Further: have not the Americans instituted laws to prohibit a man of colour from obtaining and holding any office whatever, under the government of the United States of America? This barbarous cruelty was by all the heathen nations of antiquity, and is by the Pagans, Jews and Mahometans of the present day, left entirely to Christian Americans to inflict on the Africans and their descendants, that their cup which is nearly full may be completed.

They have no more right to hold us in slavery than we have to hold them, we have just as much right, in the sight of God, to hold them and their children in slavery and wretchedness, as they have to hold us, and no more. If any man wishes to hear this doctrine openly preached to us by the American preachers, let him go into the Southern and Western sections of this country--I do not speak from hear say--what I have written, is what I have seen and heard myself. ### David Walker's Appeal

Some of our brethren are so very full of learning, that you cannot mention any thing to them which they do not know better than yourself!! When the ark rested after the flood upon Mount Arrarat, in Asia, they eight were all the people which could be found alive in all the earth--in fact if Scriptures be true, which I believe are there were no other living men in all the earth, notwithstanding some ignorant creatures hesitate not to tell us that we, the blacks are the seed of Cain the murderer of his brother Abel. But the Americans, having introduced slavery among them, their hearts have become almost seared, as with an hot iron, and God has nearly given them up to believe a lie in preference to the truth!!! But they were dis-united, as the coloured people are now, in the United States of America, the reason our natural enemies are enabled to keep their feet on our throats. The white Americans have applied this term to Africans, by way of reproach for our colour, to aggravate and heighten our miseries, because they have their feet on our throats.
