His remarkable works championed the cause of realism which was adopted closely by simply naturalism an extreme sort of realism.

The plays of Maurice Maeterlinck : second series : Maeterlinck, Maurice, 1862

Benewens 'n oorsig oor die publikasiegeskiedenis van Die siel van die mier, word ook die vraag beredeneer of Maurice Maeterlinck, die Belgiese natuurwetenskaplike, plagiaat gepleeg het in sy boek La vie des termites waarin hy duidelik van Marais se materiaal gebruik maak sonder om enigsins na hom te verwys.

Maurice Maeterlinck

This production by Barrie Kosky conjures up the psychogram of a moribund, late-bourgeois society which has nothing with which to counter a world out of balance other than the solace of a finely chiselled melancholy. This play transposes the theme of Judith and Holofernes to Renaissance Italy.

Maeterlinck, Maurice (29 August 1862

During the next five years Maeterlinck wrote the plays for which he is best known in literary and theatrical history. These were mystic in character and poetic in expression.
