Arabia before Islam

Her interest in myths and legends, ancient history and travel led to her writing the multi-award winning The Secret of the Sacred Scarab. Deadline is December 15, 2018.

If You Love Rumi, These Middle Eastern Poets Are a Must Read

Rumi: Past and Present; East and West: The Life, Teaching and Poetry of. Tuqan remained unmarried, and she would continue In her poem Martyrs of the Intifada, Tuqan reflects on Palestinian stone-throwers protesting the loss of their homeland: They died standing, blazing on the road Shining like stars, their lips pressed to the lips of life They stood up in the face of death Then disappeared like the sun. Artists and writers need not be Arab, nor of Arab origin, but all art and writing must reflect the range and richness of the cultures of the Arab world, where Arabic is spoken--a Semitic language with over 30 different varieties of colloquial Arabic.

Poetry: Islamic Poetry

With the exception of Yemen in the south-west, no part of the Arabian peninsula had any government at any time, and the Arabs never acknowledged any authority other than the authority of the chiefs of their tribes. I hurled him, head-blaze and breast-pit, again and again upon them until he was shirted with blood.
