And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die. Above Jesus' head on the cross was the inscription, and the soldiers and those passing by mocked him about the title. Equally, the names Secundus ... and Gaius ... were borne by a man from Thessalonica Acts 20:4, and a Macedonian Acts 19:29, who were travelling companions of Paul.

Did Jesus Exist? Searching for Evidence Beyond the Bible

It rather sounds as if he took his religious office seriously ... Tacitus presents himself as a man concerned to preserve traditional Roman religious practice, convinced that when religious matters are allowed to slide or are completely disregarded, the gods will vent their anger on the Roman people to correct their error. Archaeologists generally date the start of Christ's ministry to the year A. When his scheme to identify the newborn Messiah failed verses 7-8, 12 , Herod lashed out violently.
