Denver

Now is the time to act as federal and state resources are being made available to support affordable housing and the need in Colorado persists.

Denver

Over the last few years, Denver has experienced a population boom, and it doesn't seem to be slowing down anytime soon. Colorado can create new tools specifically designed to assist landlords of smaller properties, who often receive little support or are unaware of the resources available to help them maintain their affordable units, such as technical assistance on how to reduce operating costs. Traditions at Englewood is a one of a kind option for the active adult wanting to pursue their own passions.
