Libation in the Bible (35 instances)

The image represents this idea: Earth divisible substance and the Sky continuous substance are the two kozmogonic substances.

Water Libation Ceremony

YLT and wine thou bringest near for a libation, a half of the hin -- a fire-offering of sweet fragrance to Jehovah; YLT then it hath been, if from the eyes of the company it hath been done in ignorance, that all the company have prepared one bullock, a son of the herd, for a burnt-offering, for sweet fragrance to Jehovah, and its present, and its libation, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats for a sin-offering. In , where plays an important part in the local culture, it is common to pour a glass of wine on graves, especially around.

Robert Turcan, The Gods of Ancient Rome Routledge, 2001; originally published in French 1998 , p. . Next, while holding up the cup with both hands, we make a dedication to a God or several Gods or all the Gods, saying something like this: We dedicate this libation to khrismohdós and aithérios and to all the happy, deathless Gods! Paul took the metaphor further, twice using the image of a drink offering to describe his own service.

Pious Pouring: Making Libations to the Gods in the Modern Day

John 7:37-39 As each of the party reached their respective gates, a shofar was blown. God poured Paul out to many — yes, even to us, who read his letters. The Hebraic word Ruach means both wind and spirit.

Water Libations

Sometimes the third libation was made to Zefs kharisios charisius, χαρίσιος.

Water Libation Ceremony

We are poured out to honor the living Christ.

Libations And The Ancient History Of Pouring One Out

Some may call that cynical; I call it realistic and healthy. Cry out and shout, O inhabitant of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel in your midst! This same Pool of Siloam is also referred to in the New Testament.
