Our orders are custom milled and factory finished. Loggers then burned the accumulated tree limbs, shrubs, and bark.

The 13 Best Places to See California Redwoods Up Close

The previous record holder was the in at 112. In fact, the General Sherman Tree in Sequoia National Park is the most massive living thing on Earth! This contrast is beautiful to some myself included and this is the least expensive way to get the fewest amount of knots. The thick, fibrous bark of coast redwoods is extremely fire-resistant; it grows to at least a foot thick and protects mature trees from fire damage.
