SIGAR

The Athlete 365 Education Programme included five activities and two events set up by Lausanne 2020, the IOC, the International Federations, and their partners.

Cyberspace Solarium Commission

In the West Bank, Israel controls all the routes between the Palestinian enclaves. Two great athletes were on hand to light the cauldron: Pascal Bitschnau silver Snowboard Cross medalist at 2016 Lillehammer YOG, was first to carry the Flame in Athens, and Jonas Hiller, honoured to carry a symbol he'd seen many times Ice Hockey, Vancouver 2010, Sochi 2014 and PyeongChang 2018. Around 21% of persons experiencing homelessness are children.

IPCC — Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change

Land is used to develop and expand existing Jewish communities and build new ones, while Palestinians are dispossessed and corralled into small, crowded enclaves.

Brig. Gen. Albion P. Howe's Official Report (OR) For The Battle Of Gettysburg

The roadshow involved a 30-minute stage show that concluded by lighting a cauldron with the Flame from Athens.

Olympic World Library

The Lausanne 2020 communications team greatly appreciated their contribution. It's an honour to be able to have such an experience.
