Four weeks after the Bears game, Grange returned against the Cardinals at quarterback to honor his contract. Despite the speculation, Grange and those connected with him tried to dodge any inquiries that might affect his college athlete eligibility; when approached about a career in pro football, he denied it. In 1930, the Bears signed fullback although he had withdrawn from school and been kicked off the team, a violation of the Grange Rule's graduating class prerequisite.

Red Grange

The first one established, LION Newspaper, was founded over a century ago and distributes news to all over the district.
