Individuals and groups promote reform, share the emergence of new media, and capitalize on how ideas develop into action. This is asking a lot ... For too many black students school is simply the place where, more concertedly, persistently, and authoritatively than anywhere else in society, they learn how little valued they are.

Improving Student Retention, Engagement and Belonging

The responses were conducted based on a 5-point Likert-scale very satisfied, satisfied, moderately satisfied, not satisfied, or very not satisfied. Finally, as was made brutally apparent by the 2007 massacre at VA Tech, mental health concerns pertain directly to episodes of violence.
