Basketball For Dummies by Richard Phelps, Paperback

The game begins with one player from either team at center court. This type of foul results in free throws plus the offense retaining possession of the ball after the free throws. If a defensive player interferes with a shot while it's on the way down toward the basket, while it's on the way up toward the basket after having touched the backboard, or while it's in the cylinder above the rim, it's goaltending and the shot counts.
