CIR 23/83 Caravan sites and control of development act 1960, Department of the Environment

JUSTICE SYSTEM INVOLVEMENT AND EMPLOYMENT Being caught by the police and caught up in the juvenile or criminal justice systems are especially hazardous for youth from disadvantaged backgrounds, because becoming involved in crime can produce not only future criminality, but also later problems in finding employment. Teachers participating in the program shall receive credit toward recertification according to State Board of Education guidelines. Two comparison groups were devised—the first of victims and offenders who had been referred to the mediation process but did not participate and the second victims and offenders who had not been referred to mediation in the same jurisdiction as the mediation sample, and matched on age, race, sex, and offense.

In keeping with the emphasis on school accountability, principals should be actively involved in the selection, discipline, and dismissal of personnel in their particular school.

Rising Expectations: The Developmental Disabilities Act Revisited

In advocating on behalf of individuals with DD in institutions, PADD programs have filed, joined, or intervened in class action lawsuits that have alleged inappropriate care and treatment, including abuse and neglect of residents, the rights of individuals with a disability to live in the least restrictive environment, and breaches of statutory and constitutional rights. Arguably, formal handling of cases can be considered more punitive than release or diversion to other systems. Intake workers and juvenile judges have a great deal of discretion in deciding whether to place a juvenile in detention.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law except provisions of law enacted after August 10, 1948 expressly in limitation hereof, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, or any State or local public agency administering a low-rent housing project assisted pursuant to the United States Housing Act of 1937 or title II of Public Law 671, Seventy-sixth Congress, approved June 28, 1940, shall continue to have the right to maintain an action or proceeding to recover possession of any housing accommodations operated by it where such action is authorized by the statute or regulations under which such housing accommodations are administered, and, in determining net income for the purposes of tenant eligibility with respect to low-rent housing projects assisted pursuant to said Acts, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development is authorized, where it finds such action equitable and in the public interest, to exclude amounts or portions thereof paid by the United States Government for disability or death occurring in connection with military service. The fact that 90 percent of juveniles admitted to prison had not completed high school, coupled with the paucity of services available to them in adult prison, does not bode well for their reentry into society.
