SB 1.2.7 — October 18, 1972, Vṛndāvana

Therefore in any human civilization, any human society, it doesn't matter whether they're following the Vedic principles or other principles, there is a system of dharma in every human society. And nobody requires to have a guru if he has got such attitude.

SB 1.2.7 — October 18, 1972, Vṛndāvana

What sort of God you are? If you ..., if one is attached to sense enjoyment, at the same time he poses himself as a great devotee, that cannot work.

SB 1.2.7 — October 18, 1972, Vṛndāvana

But who is that mātā, who is that pitā? Before a vowel it becomes ant-, as in antacid. Mumukṣubhiḥ, those who are after liberation, nirbheda brahmānusandhana, their giving up this world, becoming sannyāsī, Māyāvādī sannyāsī, brahma satyaṁ jagan mithyā. So long one is overpowered by bhukti-mukti-siddhi, he cannot become a devotee.

ANTI

There are so many great saintly persons, jñānīs, philosophers; they're trying to get liberation.

Anti

Two years later, the Second India Armada under the command of Pedro Álvares Cabral followed, and then there were more. I must go on with individuality. He thinks it is śānti.

AŚĀNTI/DISQUIET

The one thing is bhoga, if you take yourself. . That is the beginning of human society.

Anti

Dhanam, riches; janam means men, manpower; na kavītām vā jagadīśa kāmāye. Superficially, they appear to be bhakti-yogīs, but at heart, they are nirbheda-brahmānusandhana.

The Nectar of Devotion

So long this piśācī will be within heart. There also this very word has been used, bhakti-yoga.
