The Appalling Finale of Star Trek Enterprise

But then came the final episode. Although Jannar didn't seem to believe Archer, he still admitted that his evidence is intriguing. Circa 2150, the Xindi Council were told that humans were going to destroy them in the future.

The Captain's Daughter

However, to preserve their future, the Sphere Builders helped decipher the codes. He demands that Captain Mironov swear an oath of allegiance to him, and when refused, hangs the Captain and kills his wife.

List of recurring characters in Star Trek: Enterprise

Notes: From the author of The Awakening of Helena Richie. He maintained that he himself and humanity in general had learned the lessons of the Eugenics Wars and should not continue hiding behind those events when there was progress to be made now that the technology had matured and was much more practicable.

The Captain's Daughter

Later, Shran helped Archer contact an offshoot race of the Andorians, the , which led to the destruction of the Romulan prototype.
