Remembering And Rekindling Love, Remember When, Relationship Poem

His preaching was so popular that the congregation added a gallery to the church to accommodate the many persons who flocked to hear him.

Newton poetry

After suffering a severe stroke in 1754, he gave up seafaring and slave-trading activities. It will always be a subject of humiliating reflection to me, that I was once an active instrument in a business at which my heart now shudders.

Serving Those In Need, We Are The Hands Of Christ, Religious Poem

Depositada está no aureo volume, Que sobranceiro ao cadafalso, ao sangue, Não ferio com Bailly furor de Tigres, Que ao Sena derão leis, e as dão na Europa, Que os ferros beija voluntaria escrava: Vileza, e corrupção, chegaste a tanto! Para ajuntar as peregrinas merces, Lá vai duro mortal soltando as vélas, No elemento não seu, do vento ás iras; Mortal té agora ingenuo, e qu'outras praias Não tinha visto mais, qu'as do tranquillo Regato que lhe corta os patrios campos. Spiritual conversion During his 1748 voyage to England after his rescue, Newton had a spiritual conversion. Many young churchmen and others enquiring about their faith visited him and sought his advice, including such well-known social figures as the writer and philanthropist Hannah More, and the young Member of Parliament, William Wilberforce, who had recently undergone a crisis of conscience and religious conversion as he was contemplating leaving politics.

John Newton : Read Poems by Poet John Newton

In this view I had often petitioned in my prayers that the Lord, in his own time, would be pleased to fix me in a more humane calling, and, if it might be, place me where I might have more frequent converse with his people and ordinances, and be freed from those long separations from home which very often were hard to bear.

Collected Hymns of John Newton, 200+ lyrics

He seu louvor, universal silencio: Nem lingua humana diz, nem mente abrange Tudo o que foi Buffon; contemplo, e calo.

Newton : poema : Macedo, José Agostinho de, 1761

Em chuva salutar desfeitas descem; Ou, se o frio he maior, candidos vélos Do brando vento conduzidos cobrem No triste Inverno o campo amortecido; Ou nas miúdas condensadas gotas, Pelas douradas messes espargidas, Ao desvelado Lavrador só trazem, Depois de longo afan, tristeza, ou pranto. I had been sensible that to profess faith in Jesus Christ, when in reality I did not believe his history, was no better than a mockery of a heart-searching God: but here I communicated to those who ask it.

Benjamin Franklin Newton (1821

Vi que de Icaro o vôo, a acerba queda Desse soberbo, e deslumbrado moço, Que mal regera ignípedes Ethontes, Eu hia a renovar. Para ajuntar as peregrinas merces, Lá vai duro mortal soltando as vélas, No elemento não seu, do vento ás iras; Mortal té agora ingenuo, e qu'outras praias Não tinha visto mais, qu'as do tranquillo Regato que lhe corta os patrios campos.

Remembering And Rekindling Love, Remember When, Relationship Poem

Como do meio do profundo Oceano Costuma alçar-se desmedido escôlho, Que vê quebrar-se nas eternas bazes, Já languida, e sem força onda espumante: Se olha do cume as voadoras nuvens, E os ressonantes tumidos chuveiros, Se ouve o horrendo fragor do accezo raio, Sereno permanece, e sente apenas Que a triste escuridão nas faldas pouisa; E onda, e vento debalde a baze açoita. Mas eu sou Portuguez, e armas não podem Alhêas deslumbrar-me; eu vejo as Lusas, Cujá gloria tu vêz no vasto Oriente, E, onde levantas triplice bandeira, Primeiro o nome Portuguez encontras.
