Ferry Ride to Hiking at Two Rivers

If you look to your left you can watch the Brussels Ferry take vehicles back and forth across the Illinois River.

Big Creek

A few lily pads with white flowers could be seen along with other water plants. The second variation has a short broad stem, but has sharp basal corner also called the Barbeau point. The refuge serves as an important stopover for hundreds of thousands of ducks and geese each fall along with bald eagles.

Ferry Site, Hardin County, Illinois (Melvin L. Fowler)

Our adventure included fields of golden sunflowers and a Mississippi River ferry ride.

Ferry Projectile Point

The dam helps prevent ice from forming on the river and the structures churns the water stunning fish making for easy meals for the hundreds of eagles that congregate here.
