The Millions: Epistolae Ho

Fold-outs, if any, are not part of the book. Going on, I came to repose myself upon the trunk of a Tree, and I fell to consider further what advantage that dull Vegetable had of those feeding Animals, as not to be so troublesome and beholden to Nature, nor to be subject to starving, to diseases, to the inclemency of the weather, and to be far longer-liv'd. The Professor then desired me to observe, for he was going to set his Engine at Work.
