NHS England » Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland STP

Our care standards are founded on the fundamental principles of good care practices.

Leicestershire's Adult Learning Strategy

There was a strong, person-centred culture.

Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust

Health inequalities are mainly caused by the rich buying them gym, yoga, sport, etc while the poor cannot afford them, so suffer long term conditions 18 years before the rich, and die 9 years before. If you have significant difficulties in understanding the assessment process and have no one suitable to help you, we can organise an to speak for you.

Supported living

This might be your partner, a family member, friend, neighbour or the person who looks after you. In this explainer, we set out what these services are, the challenges they are facing and how they are changing.

Leicestershire Communities

Services are struggling to meet current demand, let alone to deliver ambitions of offering more care in the community.
