Northern Ireland schools league tables

At the end of the sessions each school created mock exhibition panels and presented back their ideas to be realised by a professional designer.

An OM's story

It was really interesting to learn about what names and jobs they used to have... The writing was really weird, it had a lot of swirls and flicks on it... It was quite hard to read but we managed.

'Don't say I was wrong'

The school runs a student — band, the Verulam Big Band. I was a teacher before I worked for the library service and I have enjoyed finding these photographs. We opted to feature all post primary schools in one table.

An OM's story

A new school was erected and opened in Long Lane in 1952 as Chapel-en-le-Frith County Secondary School, and is still there today as the High School. There had originally been two girls' schools in the town, but this was reduced to one and in 1935 Larne Grammar School amalgamated with the girls Larne Intermediate School. Thompson, the voluntary grammar school was virtually rebuilt and the remaining old buildings completely refurbished.

An OM's story

His former wife adds to the controversy by saying he had started a relationship with a pupil when he was a teacher. See the guidance for tips on searching for archives relating to specific businesses and industries. However, a Herts for Learning review in January 2018 rated the school Good and highlighted improvements in the areas criticised by Ofsted.
