Co-employee liability is discussed in Before 1985, co-employees and workers' compensation carriers could be civilly liable for personal injuries caused by their negligence or wantonness. States with rolling conformity include Illinois and Massachusetts.

Chapter 9B Abatements

Under Georgia law, the standard statute of limitations for personal injury claims is two 2 years, for property damages claims is four 4 years, and for breach of written contract claims is six 6 years. Some, including Los Angeles and Humboldt Counties, used short date ranges designating days between March 17th and 19th as holidays.
