Some one said that Stendhal looked like an apothecary — Homais, presumably, or M.

Laclos, Pierre Ambroise Choderlos De (1741

After a life of persistent devotion to literature, he has left enough poems to make a single small volume less, certainly, than a hundred poems in all, a single volume of prose, a few pamphlets, and a prose translation of the poems of Poe. Free from all passion's idle pother, Full of mere kindness, how long, How well we liked not loved each other, Without one rapture or one wrong! Hamlet- like, he was inconsolable. He once tried actual suicide, but the slight cut in his throat looked so ugly that he went no farther.

Capitano II, comédia en 5 a. La passion s'exprime par Don QtieJtoUe ; induite d: He has painted interiors incomparably — this novel is filled with them: balls, café-life, political meetings, receptions, ladies in their drawing- rooms, Meissonier-like virtuosity in details or the bourgeois elegance of Alfred Stevens.
