

Education of Cupid - or, Mercury instructing Cupid in the presence of Venus; the famous painting of Antonio Allegri da Correggio rescued after three centuries of obscurity

J. Landon - Cupid and Psyche

Description: -

-

College Entrance Examination Board.

General

College-Level Examination Program

Study Aids / General

CLEP (College-Level Examination Program)

Test Prep

Study Aids

College-level examinations

Study Guides

Study & learning skills

Examinations & assessment

Photography of women

Glamour photography

Handbooks, manuals, etc

Special kinds of photography

Photography / Techniques

Photographic equipment & techniques

Subjects & Themes - Portraits

Photography

Photo Techniques

Portrait photography

Techniques - General

Cupid (Roman deity) -- Art.

Correggio, 1489?-1534.education of Cupid - or, Mercury instructing Tags: #Eros, #Cupid

Cupid in the presence of Venus; the famous painting of Antonio

Allegri da Correggio rescued after three centuries of obscurity

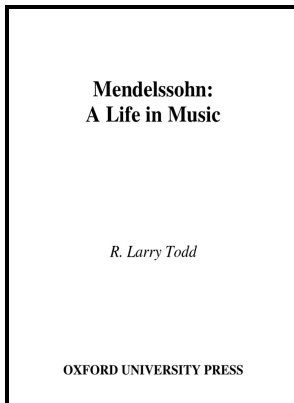

-education of Cupid - or, Mercury instructing Cupid in the presence of Venus; the famous painting of Antonio Allegri da Correggio rescued after three centuries of obscurity

Notes: Includes index.

This edition was published in 1912

Filesize: 61.52 MB

Eros, Cupid

Making it the most important advancement of ancient Greece.

Bartholomeus Spranger (1546

It is a difficult matter to keep Love imprisoned. Unfortunately for the young couple, Cupid and Psyche, Aphrodite was not the only one trying to foul things up.

in Ancient Greece What Was Cupid Known as

The story of Cupid and Psyche appears in Greek art as early as the 4th century BC, but the most extended literary source of the tale is the Latin novel Metamorphoses, also known as The Golden Ass, by Apuleius 2nd century AD.

Correggio

In the quiet of the evening she went into the grove, and she put into her bosom the soft golden stuff that was held by the leaves. Undraped female figures like that in the picture under consideration appear in numerous paintings by Spranger. She rushed out after him into the night.

Francois Boucher

In her fear for Carthage and her hatred of the Trojans she has for long years kept the Trojans away from their promised home in Latium.

Cupid and Psyche

In the Aeneid, the national epic of Rome by the poet Vergil, Cupid disguises himself as Iulus, the son of Aeneas who was in turn the son of Venus herself, and in this form he beguiles Queen Dido of Carthage to fall in love with the hero.

Titles starting with E from Rosebud Books

Cupid pierces the hearts of two people with his arrows, causing them to fall madly in love. Sometimes a pair of Pyskhai Psychae were depicted-- the second perhaps representing their daughter Hedone Pleasure.

Related Books

- NAWQA, National Water-Quality Assessment Program - central Arizona basins
- Bob Dylan - performing artist
- Artiste - Séminaire interarts de Paris, 2003-2004.
- State and regional initiatives for managing development - policy issues and practical concerns
- American theatre companies, 1931-1986