It left me wanting, my heart still tacky with the glue I'd laid down in anticipation, but still, I was reassured by Salinger's stubbornness.

I kind of wish I didn't know some of the things I now know about Edna St. This either reflects poorly on the school systems, the way that fame of women is regarded, the This is a remarkable biography, for a multitude of reasons. It makes the narrator of the book come across as an unlikeable, sneering, insinuating, condescending gossip.
