Matthew 5:20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

The message was that God was concerned about our hearts.

Unless Your Righteousness Exceeds That of the Pharisees by Kevin Gardner

We cannot trust in our righteousness. Nowhere in the Bible does it teach that people are good enough to go to heaven or can do enough good works to get there. For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed, 'God, I thank You that I am not like the other men--swindlers, evildoers, adulterers--or even like this tax collector. Some may want to downplay this statement out of a right concern for guarding salvation by grace alone through faith alone.

How Can Our Righteousness Exceed That Of The Pharisees?

The Pharisees were the prime example of people who did what they could to fulfill the requirements of the law—often coming up with the silliest examples of what fell in bounds and what was out. For I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven. And that flawless obedience counts for those who trust in Him, just as if they had perfectly kept the law themselves.

PHARISAICAL RIGHTEOUSNESS

This we might call positional righteousness.

Your Righteousness Must Exceed That Of The Pharisees & Saducees Sermon by Matthew Kratz, Matthew 5:20

Most of the people present didn't have the luxury of the Pharisees: to devote their life to study of the law. National Post: January 18, 2008.

How Can Our Righteousness Exceed That Of The Pharisees?

There are many differences between Americans and Canadians. In 1955 he accepted Christ as his Savior. Jesus challenged His listeners to a higher standard, returning kindness for evil.
