THOMAS JEFFERSON CALLS FOR A CRUSADE AGAINST IGNORANCE (1786)

Neither yet is it sufficiente that we keepe our selves by the grace of God from givinge offence, exepte withall we be armed against the taking of them when they be given by others. And it is like the reason was their owne ambition, who, since the death of so many of the Indeans, thought to dominire and lord it over the rest, and conceived the English would be a barr in their way, and saw that Massasoyt took sheilter allready under their wings. At Penistone a huge bonfire was set alight in the Old Market Place, in front of the Church gates, and at Penistone Green there were two bonfires, one in the road near where Dr.
