Anishinaabe

Census records, passenger lists, birth, death, marriage, and military records, family and local history collections, newspapers and directories. The national public use census files allow systematic comparisons across space.

Genealogy Resources

Because they were not formally organized as of 1 May 1875, there are no census records for the following counties in the 1875 State Census: Beltrami, Clearwater, Hubbard, Itasca, Kittson, Koochiching, Lake of the Woods, Mahnomen, Marshall, Norman, Pennington, Pipestone, Red Lake, Roseau 1885 The value of church property within a township or municipality is sometimes recorded after the list of the population. Douglas County is bordered by the following eight 6 counties: Non-Commercial Use All material in this site is for non-commercial use only. In conjunction with the 1970 public use samples, the Census Bureau released an expanded version of the 1960 public use sample, enlarging the sample density from 1 in 1000 to 1 in 100 U.

Census Project (USGenWeb)

We have even found errors in church books. The irony is that individual community studies do not permit the study of the impact of local conditions or geographic diversity: these topics can only be addressed by comparing localities.

Genealogy Resources

Additional individual directories are available for many cities in Hennepin County. The 1880 census was the obvious candidate for the next national microdata project. This statute mandates 3 the periodic preparation of population projections for the state and designated regions and 7 the issuing of a report to the Legislature containing an analysis of the demographic implications of the annual population study and population projections.

local conditions affect behavior.

Anishinaabe

These strengths are complete geographic coverage, large scale, and broad chronological scope. Menard The census is our fundamental source of information about American social structure in the past. Please note, due to staffing limitations, the National Archives cannot conduct census research on your behalf.
