The artists to whom we now turn anticipated these insights, serving as early warning signals. They provide fascinating descriptions of the error being transmitted through social institutions, and point out its malignant impact on men and women alike. This book GW Bush era and it's sequel 'Darkness now Visible' Trump era both cover the same important oppressive aspects to be looked at in these regressive times.

THE LENS OF GENDER: AN EXCERPT FROM DEEPENING BY CAROL GILLIGAN AND DAVID A.J. RICHARDS

Having said that up front, I stayed with five stars because this is an epic work, and I am deeply impressed by the rigorous documentation in notes, the spectacular bibliography, and the deliberate mention of names of minds being quoted in the body of the book, a certain mark of integrity that I always look for.
