Wonders, prodigies and marvels: unusual bodies and the fear of heresy in Ralph of Coggeshall's Chronicon Anglicanum

The writers stated that the events took place within the reign of King Stephen 1135-54 or King Henry II 1154-1189 , depending on which version of the story you read. They entered the cave and wandered through the darkness for a long time until they came out the other side, entering into bright sunlight, which they found startling.
