Uniform Appraisal Standards for Federal Land Acquisitions.

The FHWA also proposes to add language to appendix A, Section 24.

Federal :: Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition for Federal and Federally Assisted Programs

In 1989, FHWA first adopted a rule on appraisal waivers. The FHWA seeks comments on whether there may be other resources that can be used when an agency considers a certification invalid. The ASFMRM offers a variety of types of education for Appraisal, Farm Management and Consulting, and Continuing Education seminars.

Foundations of Appraisal Review (A600)

The term uneconomic remnant means a parcel of real property in which the owner is left with an interest after the partial acquisition of the owner's property, and which the Agency has determined has little or no value or utility to the owner. A binding agreement as used in this appendix is a legally enforceable document in which the property owner agrees to sell certain property rights necessary for a project and the Agency agrees, without further election, to make that purchase.

Should the reimbursement be for the full commercial move bid, or should it be made after subtracting an amount to account for overhead and profit in the commercial move bid? If the owner of a real property improvement is permitted to retain it for removal from the project site, the amount to be offered for the interest in the real property to be acquired shall not be less than the difference between the amount determined to be just compensation for the owner's interest in the real property and the salvage value defined at § 24.

B A replacement dwelling rented by an eligible displaced person is considered to be within his or her financial means if, after receiving rental assistance under this part, the person's monthly rent and estimated average monthly utility costs for the replacement dwelling do not exceed the person's base monthly rental for the displacement dwelling as described at § 24.

Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP)

The appraiser shall disregard any decrease or increase in the fair market value of the real property caused by the project for which the property is to be acquired, or by the likelihood that the property would be acquired for the project, other than that due to physical deterioration within the reasonable control of the owner.
