Just to put in my two-cents...Angkor or better yet, Angkor Thom was the capital of Cambodia until it was destroyed.

Troas

Four civilizations lived Shahr-I Sokhata, which was burnt down three times and not rebuilt after the last fire in around 1800 BC.

Troas

From the top of the great pyramid, the rulers of Caral would have been able to monitor the entire city. By measuring the amount of Carbon-14 left in the sample, it is possible to estimate when it died.

34 Lost Cities Forgotten by Time (with Map & Photos)

Recent excavations by the Spanish Archaeological Mission discovered the foundations of a smaller courtyard castle. On top of those changes, the construction of the city itself caused shifts in the local climate.
