The Dusty Bookcase: September 2011

Elizabeth Lucy's lost innocence does not deprive her of the capacity for goodness as she reaches out compassionately to Sandra and Jim Rande and affectionately to her father. It all begins with Priscilla Pringle, well-known author of clerical murder mysteries, and a train ride with Captain Bulkington. If Joe forsakes Sparrs, Sparrs does not give up on him.

The Dusty Bookcase: Remembering John Buell: A Lot to Make Up For

After the crash of his plane, he is immersed in the water of the lake but rises to experience the tribulation of his quest for deliverance which ends when he is saved by those who live most intimately in harmony with nature. Such a narrative action of deliverance, not by one's own means but through the intervention of another, recalls a similar event in The Shrewsdale Exit when Joe Grant is saved from his 137 misguided life by the intervention of Captain Sparrs. .

Appleby's Answer (Sir John Appleby, #28) by Michael Innes

Upon his retirement in 1987, he was made professor emeritus. Yet on a human level he understands why Joe would abrogate the moral as well as civil law in his violent quest for vengeance. This study seeks to establish how identifiable features of Buell's Catholic faith are manifested in his novels.
