The treatment was a painful ordeal. Martin was born in Harlem, attended a community college in Queens, and then moved to 155th Street and Broadway, where she is raising her five children.

The Quality Management Sourcebook: An International Guide to Materials and Resources

The decline in the quality of political leadership is perhaps most eloquently reflected in the trivialisation of political discourse, which in turn has led to an obsession with personalities and their statements and the substitution of argument by abuse as the stuff of polemic. That's partly because such a large percentage of the public has no critical thinking skills, and cannot see the difference between self-help nonsense and real science. This really makes me wonder about Kesey.
