

Corner of Limerick - history, recollections, and photographs

J. Sheehan - The History of Fayerdale, Virginia

Description: -

-

United States -- Claims

Bills, Private -- United States

United States. -- Congress -- Private bills

Education -- Québec (Province)

United States -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865.

Historical reenactments -- United States -- Handbooks, manuals, etc.

Limerick (Ireland : County) -- History.corner of Limerick - history, recollections, and photographs

-corner of Limerick - history, recollections, and photographs

Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. 310-311).

This edition was published in 1990

Filesize: 11.15 MB

Tags: #Ball #Family #Slaveholder #Index

Esko's Corner

Letter, December 1862, from Phydila P. Babcock describes military life and combat with the enemy, including nearly being wounded; worries that there are cowards in his regiment; comments on flooding back in McKean County; and states that he saw General George B.

County Limerick, Ireland Genealogy • FamilySearch

Reminiscences of Civil War service by James C. Isaac wore a mustache and a tuft of hair below his lower lip throughout life; the hair is dark in photographs from the Civil War era and white in later pictures.

Family Histories, Limerick City Council

In the family of my mother's father, the Rowleys, were more slave owners. Brock regarding the Anderson family genealogy.

Self

The reports record where funds came from, who they were distributed to and exactly who and what the money was to be used for, listing specific amounts foods such as bacon, corn, flour, and coffee and household items such as wool.

15 Best Things to Do in Limerick (Ireland)

Askeaton 1999 Gerard Curtin A pauper warren : West Limerick 1845-49 Ballyhahill, Co. Diary also notes some of the battles that were raging in Richmond, Virginia, Fayette and Raleigh Counties, West Virginia, and includes some personal financial information. The prospect of the family reunion pushed me, finally, to come to terms with it.

36 Old pics of limerick ideas

Original of this letter is located in William Fielding Baugh papers, 1861-1905, accession 45019. It was here that the founder of the family, the first Elias Ball, came from England to live in the year 1698. According to a note by the donor, Gloria Hollister Anable, her paternal grandfather found the signatures in receipt books in the Virginia State House and sent them back home to Stamford, Connecticut.

Irish Genealogy Archives

Accession 28992, Miscellaneous reel 535-536.

Related Books

- George W.E. Nickelsburg in perspective - an ongoing dialogue of learning
- Novels, Mont Saint Michel, The education
- Ketav Sofer ... Hulin
- Gending-gending kreasi
- Wonted fires: a reading of Thomas Gray