Mary Bradbury

On September 13, 1710, John and Joseph Parker filed a petition with a committee that had been sent to Salem to make restitution to the victims of the trials.

Mary Bradbury

Peters was not the father of either of Winthrop's two wives; and there was nothing in any family records or memorials to justify the notion. Let him try another boy. According to the court records, only two people testified against Parker in her trial: Mercy Wardwell and William Barker Jr.

Mary Bradbury

They were but slightly attached to the soil, had temporary and movable habitations, and no bulky implements or articles of furniture.

Mary Bradbury

As showing how far the beliefs of the understanding, the perceptions of the senses, and the delusions of the imagination, may be confounded, the subject belongs not only to theology and moral and political science, but to physiology, in its original and proper use, as embracing our whole nature; and the facts presented may help to conclusions relating to what is justly regarded as the great mystery of our being, the connection between the body and the mind.
