GRIFFITHS, JOHN GWYNEDD (J. Gwyn) (1911

While sound beliefs are desirable, and wrong beliefs are to be avoided, it is certainly possible to have genuine faith in Jesus even without correct beliefs.

David Levy's Essay

Considering I remain unconvinced by any such cases, I resign myself to the passive contention that determinism and moral responsibility are compatible. Although this no doubt upset him, what was really distressing was that the ark—for which he was responsible—had been captured. The ark is the symbol—and sacrament—of the divine presence.

Behrmann, Almut Das Nilpferd in der Vorstellungswelt der alten Ägypter, Teil II: Textband Europäische Hochschulschriften 38, Archäologie 62 ISBN 3-631-48964-1. The OT depicts the Lord as the merciful God. Rogan, Agriculture in Egypt from Pharaonic to Modern Times, 1999.

Divine Judgment

He announced first that the rapture would happen on May 21, 2011, and then later, with the passing of that date, revised his prediction to October 21, 2011. God loves the world, and sent his Son to save rather than to judge, the world.

Judgment in the Hall of Truth and Preparations for the Afterlife

Three egregious sinners are allocated to eternal punishment, but the spiritual consequences of the incident are not yet clear. San Diego: Gulliver Books, 1988.

Egyptian Hieroglyphs

A dead noble stands trembling in the Hall of Truth. In his treatment of this text Cranfield hits exactly the right notes.
