He appointed Lieutenant General William Peers, a World War II veteran who had led the 4th Infantry Division in Vietnam, to investigate.

Zhirinovskii, Vladimir 1946

Across the system the ability to do the top-end work of leadership begins to atrophy. Ridgway shortly succeeded in turning around the war; it was an episode of transformational leadership that would be better known had it not occurred in a small, unpopular conflict on the other side of the earth.

Onward Christian soldiers

Russian Voters have a clear choice at the next Election, and that is on the matter of whom can they trust to best Govern Russia for the next five years. It takes a lot of courage to allow ourselves...It's a terribly hard risk to take, and the... Many people are living in an emotional jail without recognizing it.

For the insurer, that is. This book explores the life of Zhirinovsky and examines his rise to absolute power.

Vladimir Zhirinovsky and the LDPR

Zhirinovsky proposes the expulsion of America from the United Nations Security Council, but this is because America wants an excuse to go against the United Nations Security Council Resolutions, and they would gladly want that excuse if Russia could provide it for America. Of course, the biggest selling point of the estate are the 360-degree views of the mountains, valley, and sea just beyond. The national republics would be abolished.
