KIDS PHILOSOPHY SLAM

Rousseau never learnt the truth. By the age of sixteen, he had left home.

Jean Jacques Rousseau

But this is probably not the place for me to advertise my own thoughts on this subject, so let me conclude.

10 Major Accomplishments of Jean Jacques Rousseau

For competing views of this question see Fralin 1978 and Cohen 2010. In this work, Rousseau suggests that women are responsible for educating the young while arguing that they are incapable of reason.

Theorists: Jean

The key to this reconciliation is the idea of the general will: that is, the collective will of the citizen body taken as a whole. Third, it represents a very concrete example of the limits of sovereign power: following Locke, Rousseau insists upon the inability of the sovereign to examine the private beliefs of citizens. There were no laws, only a Thought Police.

Jean Jacques Rousseau (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

He enlarged on his first work, criticizing civilization for its corrupting influence and praising the natural, or primitive, state as morally superior to the civilized state.

Who Is Jean

Rousseau's ideas were radical for the time but have proved enduring. In the meantime, the local ministers had become aware of the apostasies in some of his writings, and resolved not to let him stay in the vicinity. References and Further Reading a.
