His next fiction consisted of three novellas in one volume which were entitled Cap'n Davey's Honeymoon, The Last Confession and The Blind Mother. His novels were primarily romantic in nature, involving the love triangle, but they did also address some of the more serious political and social issues of the day. However he continued to spend much of his time in writing.

Parable

The programme provided by Hartes Ease largely included music from the Mediaeval period, with one of them, Ein Feste Burg, linking events with one of the many novels written by famous Island novelist Sir Hall Caine. The dual problem is therefore: Who shall it be to intervene, and how shall he do it? Not a Book Club Edition.
