As always, Jeff is exceedingly comprehensive, providing no fewer than four accompaniments for the various forms of the Our Father. New York: Cambridge University Press, 2012. Although such accompaniments often have no pedal parts, using the organ pedals occasionally can make them a bit easier to play, helping out the hands and compensating somewhat for the lack of a damper pedal.

Hints on Organ Accompaniment by Demarest, Clifford

When accompanying, we are followers, sometimes supporters; and at other times merely in the background; occasionally, equal partners. Erik Routley, Church Music and the Christian Faith Carol Stream, Illinois: Agape, 1978 , 102 and 105—6.
