But, lastly, apart from other considerations, Christianity is entitled to the lasting gratitude of the world by propounding and enforcing moral and political duties, without alarming jealousy by interfering with merely OF CHRISTIANITY. An Enquiry whether the Christian Religion is of any Benefit, or only An Useless Commodity to a Trading Nation. Natural religion is of no use in these inquiries, and reason is perfectly silent : judging from analogy, we see vice suffering its deserved penalties : the man who by excesses has injured his health, bears the effects of his sin in bodily infirmities, and perhaps in premature dissolution.
