The first records of the word investigation come from the 1400s. The word is commonly associated with police investigations of criminal activity, but it is used in many other contexts to refer to the process of—systematically finding and examining.

Investigation Definition & Meaning

A county executive in Missouri who brazenly and illegally steered government funds to his political donors has been convicted and sentenced as a result of an FBI investigation. Let us shield you from unscrupulous employees, dishonest business partners, and other bad actors who threaten your success.
