side and the latter on Satan's side? Since the satanic side mimics in advance the providence of God, we may expect that God's providence calls for three stages of revolution to take place in each of the three spheres of religion, politics and economy.

Europe at the time of The Reformation, 1517

Since medieval feudal society ran counter to both Hebraism and Hellenism, these two ideologies worked in tandem to tear it down as they established societies built upon the Cain-type and Abel-type views of life. The kings justified their supreme power by the doctrine of the divine right of kings. This was modified from time to time when the king dominated the government, while the Church under the leadership of the papacy played a role similar to that of a political party.

The Reformation 1517

On October 31, 1517, in Wittenberg, Luther nailed to the door of the Castle Church. Thus, Kant overturned empiricism, which held that cognition is determined by external objects, and established a new theory that cognition is governed by the subjective mind. Fascism denies the fundamental values of modern democracy, including respect for the individual and his basic rights, freedoms of speech, the press and association, and the parliamentary system.

The Reformation 1517

This movement had a strong conservative bent and adhered to the traditional faith while simultaneously emphasizing mystical experience. At the conclusion of the Second World War, the growth stage of the dispensation of the Second Advent commenced.

Marburg Colloquy This was the name given to the meeting between Martin Luther and the Swiss reformer Ulrich Zwingli at Marburg Castle, Marburg, Hesse, Germany. Its effects continue to this day, where a sharp divide still exists between religion and science; between faith and reason.

The Reformation 1517

The Renaissance launched these two currents of thought, which were rooted in humanism.

The Reformation Era of Church History (1417 to 1648 AD)

It drove science out of Italy and north to the Netherlands. These measures against Korean Christianity were intensified toward the end of the war.
