Palomar said the real blame lies with the Mexican government. In his will, Barragán divided his architectural legacy between two people. She told me her story.

The show, which opened in June and will travel to the San Francisco Art Institute in September, was spread across several rooms. If there is a recurring criticism of Barragán, it is that he was undemocratic.

Booko: Comparing for Luis Barragan: The Quiet Revolution

You once confided to me that you have been lonely down in the archive. She opened the lid and the sun hit the stone.
