The Quran: Sūra XXXIX.: Zumar, or the Crowds.: Section 6 (53)

Muslims worship the one and only God, who is childless, and also unbred, who created the heavens and the earth and what existed between the two in six periods, He knew what entered into the earth and what came out of it and what came down from it the sky and what rises to him.

What Does the Quran Say About Isa Al

Whoever believes in Isa and follow His teachings will be saved.

The Quran: Sūra XXXIX.: Zumar, or the Crowds.: Section 6 (53)

So it is essential to prevent that, in order to preserve the source of Islam and block the means that may lead to evil and corruption. The blame is only Against those who oppress Men with wrong-doing And insolently transgress Beyond bounds through the land, Defying right and justice: For such there will be A Penalty grievous. Firstly: In the answer to question no.
