Nihon kinsei shakai no shijō kōzō (Book, 1975) [play.fridaynightfunk.rf.gd]

After getting the information they needed, Sakaki along with Akisame, Miu and Kenichi rush to the location they were going to take Kenichi. When he is training Kenichi, he almost always seen wearing a traditional karate gi outfit. This is an exaggerated parallel situation to one presented in The Karate Kid.

Also, for several times during their first meetings, Kenichi feared Sakaki the most, thinking he was the most dangerous and violent not yet knowing his true personality. The Ryozanpaku masters, along with Cyril Rahman, Ma Sougetsu, and Agaard are seen to have many injuries throughout their bodies as they face down Mikumo's group, with Mikumo's aura bearing down on them. Introducing themselves, Kiyoi reveals that of the Hachiou Executioner Blade is her half brother, much to the others surprise.

He was then horrified by Apachai's hole in his stomach and let Akisame save his life with his help. As Akisame is vulnerable because of his attack, Mildred takes advantage and shoots a volley of arrows at him. He can also jump considerable distances, regularly jumping from rooftop to rooftop to get to a destination.

Naturally owing to his dislike for taking on disciples, he refused, but was still followed by Suzuki. With a single glare, he can knock a full-grown man off his feet and out-cold, and even do the same to a large group of people at once. Luckily, the missile explodes as the Elder destroys it at the last second.
