What does it mean that the Bible should be our sole authority for faith and practice?

The effects upon our Church, and the country at large, in various ways, from the spread of such views within her communion, are of no trivial moment, even to the mere politician.

Biblical Authority

Why would Protestants reject the Church Christ himself started if Christ tells us to hear this very Church? Similarly, the Bible is not written in a mysterious and cryptic code that needs some infallible decoder to explain its hidden meaning.

The most enthusiastic proponents of sola Scriptura do so eagerly and do their best to make sure that their preaching is consistent with the written Word of God. THE nature and dignity of the Word of God require that submission to it should not be left to the choice of man, but should be made obligatory. A Bible Believing Christian embraces the sacred words of the Holy Bible.
