DC Comics 1988 SuperMan Issue 21 Part 1 of The SuperGirl Saga C

Very minimal wear and tear. Script by Marv Wolfman, pencils by Jerry Ordway, inks by Bob Smith. Superman says the Pete Ross of the pocket universe had mistakenly thought that Superman was a rapidly aged version of Superboy due to exposure to Red Kryptonite! The story put an end to the unpopular Lex Luthor relationship, and two years later an ongoing Supergirl series was launched.

DC Comics 1988 SuperMan Issue 21 Part 1 of The SuperGirl Saga C

Back on Earth, Superman is heading home after having an adventure with the Doom Patrol last issue.

Adventures of Superman (1987) comic books

And what does Lex Luthor have to do with all this? Supergirl doesn't recognize him, though, which leads Superman to believe that she came from the same Pocket Universe dimension that he visited earlier, the one that Superboy from the Legion of Superheroes came from. One of the chosen seeks to leave and one has doubts.

Superman Homepage

Superman is confused, as the impostor is an exact duplicate of Lana, even down to the molecular level. Superman along with Supergirl, Lex Luthor, and his resistance team confront the three Phantom Zone criminals as they engage in a battle that results in great disaster: the Smallville citadel is destroyed, all of Luthor's team members are killed, and Supergirl is surprisingly melted. Olsen sees a photo with her missing husband, Jake; Luthor has lost his right hand; Superman manages to stop an escape attempt by Killgrave, but finds his powers being 'switched' off; Dreadnaught attacks saying Psi-Phon has transferred Superman's powers to him.
