The Times Mini Atlas of the World : Times Atlases : 9780008262501

In many areas the archaeological study of the patriarchal period it has to be conceded that we simply do not have the evidence to make any statement as to the historicity of events one way or the other. Albright associated Abraham with the Amorite migrations of this period, arguing that he was a donkey caravaner who plied his trade in Canaan. New Haven: Yale University Press, 1975.

play.fridaynightfunk.rf.gd.uk: Archaeology and the Patriarchs by Robert I Bradshaw

About this Item: Bay Books, Sydney, 1988. Reacting to the abuses of extra-biblical parallels he points out that there is a prejudice against a 1st millennium dating for the patriarchal narratives, which means that only early or mid 2nd millennium documents are considered in comparative studies, anything later than this being regarded as irrelevant.
